HISTORICAL SKETCH.

THE following statement was prepared by the Hon. TRACY PECK, a member of the Church and one of the Committee, and will explain to some extent, the time and manner of the formation of the Society and the gathering of the Congregational Church in the present town of Bristol.

In the year 1721, the original eighty-four proprietors of the lands contained within the limits of the patent of the town of Farmington, procured their lands lying within the present town of Bristol, to be surveyed and lotted out at right angles, among themselves, according to their respective lists for the year 1672. This tract of land is five miles square, and lies at right angles; at the same time there was allowed to two Indians, viz. Bohemia and Poland, a lot of land containing one hundred and eighty-six acres, and also a lot to said Poland of four and a half acres—these lots lay adjoining, and upon them these Indians peaceably resided for a number of years. A portion of the village of Forestville stands on these lots. The stream of water between East Bristol and Forestville, called “Poland Brook,” takes its name from one of these Indians, and upon its banks Poland lived. The ridge of land lying south and south east of Forestville, called “Bohemia Bank” takes its name from the other Indian, who lived on the flat near its foot.

The permanent settlement of Bristol, by the English, is said to have commenced in the year 1727, —the date of the earliest deed to an actual settler is November 22d, 1727. The purchaser was Mr. Daniel Brownson, of Farmington. This land lies back of the store of Mr. Rowland M. Andrews.

In the year 1728, Mr. Ebenezer Barnes, from Farmington, and Mr. Nehemiah Manross, from Lebanon, took deeds of lands and settled upon them. Mr. Barnes' deed included the lands now owned by the widow Lydia Pierce and others. Mr. Manross' deed included lands now owned by Mr. Ephraim Downes and others; meaning the place south of Orrin L. Botsford's. These men raised families and some of their descendants now reside here. Mr. Manross, in 1735, purchased a tract of land now owned by Elisha Manross, Esq., and others, upon which he built a small house—the cellar of which is now to be seen, and is about forty rods south of the residence of Elisha Manross, Esq. From 1735 to the present time much of the lands contained in that purchase have been held by his descendants.

In 1729 Mr. Nathaniel Messenger, from Hartford, and Mr. Benjamin Buck, from Farmington, took deeds. Mr. Messenger's included the lands now owned by Orrin L. Botsford and others; his house stood on the other side of the road. Mr. Bucks' deed included the farm now owned by Mr. Lazarus Hard, and his residence was upon it. About the same year Mr. John Brown, from Colchester, took a deed of the farm lying between the lands of Mr. Ebenezer Barnes and Mr. Nehemiah Manross—a small brown house now stands on this purchase—the rolling mill also stands upon it. The descendants of Messrs. Messenger, Buck, and Brown, have all left this place, as is supposed.

In 1736, Mr. Moses Lyman, from Wallingford, purchased and settled upon the place now occupied by Mr. Hopkins Roberts and others. It is supposed this was a very worthy man. It is not known that any of his descendants reside among us.

In 1737, Mr. Ebenezer Hamblin, from Barnstable, Mass., purchased and built upon a piece of land adjoining Poland brook; upon which he built and resided, the cellar place is now to be seen; he afterwards moved and resided, as is supposed, on the west side of the road, north of the house of Orrin L. Botsford, where the cellar place is to be seen. This man and his family were one of the best families in the place; his descendants have long since left town. The Rev. Leonidas Lent Hamblin, D. D., of Cincinnati, Ohio, a Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, is a descendant of his.

In 1742, Caleb Abernethy, from Wallingford, bought and settled upon the corner lot south of Orrin L. Botsford's slaughter. The Harwinton and Wolcottle Abernethys are descendants of this man.

Between the years 1740 and 1747, David Gaylord, Joseph Gaylord, Stephen Brooks, Caleb Matthews, and others, from Wallingford, and Daniel Mix, from Farmington, made purchases of land and settled here; the Gaylords in the south and south west part of the place; Mr. Matthews and the Brooks on Chippin's Hill, which hill took its name from an Indian of that name. Mr. Mix was the first purchaser of and settler upon the ground upon which Foster's hotel, the Post Office, and other buildings stand.

Messrs. Abel Roice and Nehemiah Roice, from Wallingford, were early settlers. Abel Roice built, lived and died in the old house owned by Mr. Orrin Ives, and Mr. Nehemiah Roice the one now owned by Jeremiah Rice, Esq. It is now more than a century since these two houses were built. All of these persons were Congregationalists, and attended public worship at Farmington, then under the ministry of Rev. Samuel Whitman.

In October, 1742, the General Assembly on their memorial granted them the liberty of winter privileges, and to hire an orthodox and suitably qualified person to preach among them for six months annually, commencing on the first of November, and the Society was called "South West Society," or 'Winter Parish.' The first Society meeting was holden on the eight day of November, 1742, and Ebenezer Barnes was chosen Moderator, and Moses Lyman, Society's Clerk.

Messrs. Edward Gaylord, Nehemiah Manross, and Ebenezer Hamblin were chosen Society Committee. At this meeting it was "Voted, To hire preaching so long as the Court has given us liberty." At a Society meeting holden on the twentieth of December, 1742, it was voted to hire Mr. Canfield to preach during the winter season. (This was Mr. Thomas Canfield, a graduate of Yale College of the class 1739, and a classmate of the Rev. Samuel Newell. Mr. Canfield was afterwards settled in Roxbury, in 1744, and died in 1795.)

At the session of the General Assembly holden in May, 1744, upon the memorial of Mr. Ebenezer Barnes and others, they were incorporated into an Ecclesiastical Society, with the limits of five miles square, and called "New Cambridge."

At the first Society meeting holden in New Cambridge, on the fourth day of June, 1744, it was "Voted that we apply ourselves to the next Association for advice in order to bringing in a Minister as soon as conveniently may be."

At an adjourned Society meeting holden on the seventh day of June, 1744, "Voted that we would apply ourselves to Mr. Joseph Adams, as a probationer or candidate, in order for settlement among us in the Gospel Ministry." We can say nothing more of this Mr. Adams, except that he graduated at Yale College in 1740, and died in 1782.

At a Society meeting holden at the house of David Gaylord, (the Eleazor Norton place,) on the fourth day of September, 1744, Mr. Samuel Newell was invited to preach to the Society; also at the same meeting, "Voted to attend public worship at the house of Stephen Barnes." (This house stood near the house of Mr. Alphonso Barnes.)

At a Society meeting holden December 3d, 1744, "Voted that we hire Mr. Samuel Newell, for our minister, in case it should be the advice of the Association, there being seven votes in the negative."—And this invitation, or call, was again made to Mr. Newell, at a Society meeting holden January 21st, 1745, and still again on the second of October, 1745, there then being twenty-eight votes in the affirmative and two in the negative. Moses Lyman, John Hickox, Abel Roice, Abner Matthews, Stephen Brooks, and Caleb Palmer, here entered a protest against the management of said Society meeting, and consequently the meeting was adjourned until the 28th of said October, which meeting met agreeable to adjournment, and "Voted to call a council of ministers to hear and determine any differences among them with respect to settling Mr. Newell as their minister, and that the Rev. Samuel Whitman, Mr. Marsh, Mr. Colton, Mr. Wadsworth, Mr. Bissell, Mr. Elnathan Whitman, and Mr. Curtiss, should be the Council, with as many messengers as they should think fit to bring with them." The council met on the 13th of November, 1745. No record of the result of the council is to be found ; but, after this a Mr. Ichabod Camp, and a Mr. Christopher Newton, were invited to preach in the Society.

At a Society meeting holden on the second day of July, 1747, it was voted to proceed to the settlement of Mr. Samuel Newell among us since the association advise us to him ; " and here it must be noted" says the record, "that Caleb Matthews, Stephen Brooks, John Hickox, Caleb Abernethy, Abner Matthews, Abel Roice, Daniel Roe, and Simon Tuttle, publicly declared themselves of the Church of England, and under the Bishop of London."

At a Society meeting holden on the 20th day of July, 1747, it was voted to apply to the Rev. Samuel Whitman, of Farmington, Rev. Jonathan Marsh, of Windsor, Rev. Benjamin Colton, of West Hartford, Rev. Elnathan Whitman, of Hartford, and Rev. Jeremiah Curtiss, of Southington, with their churches to assist in the ordination of Mr. Newell.

The ordination of Rev. Samuel Newell took place on the 12th day of August, 1747, and the Church was gathered at the Church-fast preparatory to the ordination, and consisted of about twenty male members. Rev. Messrs. Whitman, of Farmington, Colton, of West Hartford, and Curtiss, of Southington, assisted at the fast and the formation of the Church.

In the month of March, 1746, Mr. Samuel Messenger, a County Surveyor, in pursuance of a vote of the Society, run out the Society lines, and placed bounds at some of the corners, and also ascertained the center, and there set a stake, and stones about it, and this is supposed to be near the barn of Mr. Chauncey Boardman. On the sixth and seventh of October, 1746, a stake was set by a Committee appointed by the General Assembly, around which the sills of the first meeting-house were to be placed, and in 1747, the first meeting-house was erected, being 30 by 40 feet upon the ground. This house stood about 60 feet a little to the north of east of the present one. In 1770, the second Congregational Church was erected, and the sills enclosed a stake placed six feet west of the then old meeting-house, which had been there placed by a committee appointed by the Hon. County Court. This house was sixty-five by forty-five feet upon the ground. In the spring of 1797, a steeple was built, by subscription mainly, and attached to the north end of it, and in the fall of the same year, an excellent bell, weighing about 600 pounds was procured, by subscription, and placed in its belfry.

In 1831, the present Church edifice was erected, and is seventy-two by forty-eight feet upon the ground, and stands about fifteen feet west and thirty south of the old house.

At a Church meeting holden August 3d, 1842, upon the report of a Committee, the following preamble and resolve were unanimously adopted, to wit—“Whereas, Mr. Thomas Barnes, a brother in the Church, procured and presented to this Church on the first day of May, 1841, two three quart Flagons of the value of twenty-six dollars each ; twelve cups of the value of six dollars each ; four platters of the value of eight dollars each ; and one vase of the value of ten dollars ; making a value in the whole of one hundred and sixty-six dollars, being a full sett of Communion Furniture, of the best double plated English manufacture.

Therefore, in consideration thereof, it is hereby Resolved, That the thanks of this Church be presented to the said Mr. Barnes, signifying to him thereby, that he has laid this Church under an obligation to ever pray for his prosperity, and the increase and growth of grace in his soul, and that the Clerk present to Mr. Barnes a copy hereof." The old Communion Furniture was given to the Central Evangelical Church in Barkhamsted.

The first Pastor, the Rev. SAMUEL NEWELL, was ordained August 12th, 1747, and continued its Pastor until his death, February 10th, 1789, he being in the 75th year of his age. He lies buried in the south yard. Mr. Newell was a native of Southington, a graduate of Yale College, class 1739,—was married May 4th, 1749, to Mary, widow of Timothy Root, of Farmington,—her maiden name was Mary Hart. It is worthy of notice that Mr. Newell is the only clergyman of our denomination that lies buried in Bristol.

Rev. Charles L. Hungerford of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a son of Mr. Evets Hungerford, died at Brooklyn, L. I., November 16th, 1845, aged twenty-nine years. His corpse was brought to and buried in Bristol, west yard. These two are the only clergymen buried in Bristol.

The Rev. GILES HOOKER COWLES, the second Pastor, was ordained October 17th, 1792. The Rev.

Jonathan Edwards, D. D., of New Haven, preached the ordination sermon, and the Rev. Timothy Pitkin, of Farmington, Rev. John Smally, of New Britain, Rev. Rufus Hawley of Avon, Rev. William Robinson of Southington, Rev. Simon Waterman of Plymouth, Rev. Benoni Upson of Kensington, Rev. Jonathan Miller of Burlington, and Rev. Israel B. Woodward of Wolcott, with their delegates, constituted the ordaining council. Mr. Cowles was dismissed, by mutual consent, May 24th, 1810.

Mr. Cowles placed upon the records of this church the following facts, viz.—“No dissatisfaction was manifested towards Mr. Cowles in any respect, the Society, as a reason for not doing any thing, manifested their fears that some few might be disposed to leave the Society from pecuniary motives; but time will determine whether they misjudged or not.

Mr. Cowles, at the close of seventeen years and seven months ministry in this place, on the 27th of May, 1810, preached his farewell sermon from Hebrews 13: 17. “For they watch for your souls as they that must give an account, that they may do it with joy and not with grief, for that is unprofitable for you,” to a crowded assembly, who were very much affected, and appeared to regret the unhappy circumstances which rendered the trying parting scene necessary. “Perhaps the instance was never known that a minister and people ever parted with so much harmony, but for wise purposes Providence has ordered it so.”

“There were four seasons of awakening during Mr. Cowles’ ministry. 218 members were added to the Church. 181 from the world upon their profession, and 37 by letters from other churches. Of the 218,—74 were gone by death, removals and excommunications. The number remaining at his dismissal 162; of these, but 17 were members when he settled with them. The church parted with a truly faithful minister, whose choice was to live and die with them; but he has gone, and the Church and Society's duty is plain to endeavor to choose another who will be faithful to the souls committed to his charge; to support him, and assist him to fulfill the arduous task imposed on him." In about one year Mr. Cowles removed with his family to Austinburgh, Ohio, where he was reinstalled and remained until his death which occurred on the fifth day of July, 1835, aged sixty-nine years. While at Austinburgh he received the degree of Doctor of Divinity, from Williams College, Massachusetts. Mr. Cowles was born in Farmington on the 26th of August, 1766; was a graduate of Yale College of the class of 1789; studied Divinity with Dr. Edwards of New Haven; was married February, 1793, to Miss Sally White of Stamford.

REV. JONATHAN CONE, the third Pastor, was ordained May 22d, 1811. The ordaining council consisted of the Rev. Messrs. Dan Huntington, Middletown, Nathan Perkins, D.D., West Hartford, William Robinson, Southington, Jonathan Miller, Burlington, Salmon Cone, Colchester, Noah Porter, Farmington, and Luther Hart, Plymouth, with their delegates.—The Rev. Dan Huntington preached on the occasion. He was dismissed by mutual consent on the 19th of March, 1828. We find no record made by Mr. Cone of the fruit or success of his ministry among us; but we find that during his ministry here 254 were added upon their profession, and 54 by letters from other churches ; total 308 ; and that 73 were dismissed and recommended to other churches.— Mr. Cone was afterwards reinstated at Durham, Greene County, New York, where he remained until about two or three years previous to his death, when he moved to New Haven, where he died January 4, 1850, in the sixty-fifth year of his age. Mr. Cone was born in Colchester, was a graduate of Yale College, of the class 1808 ; studied Theology at Andover Seminary, Mass. He married Abbe Usher of Chatham.

REV. ABNER JOHNSON LEAVENWORTH, the fourth Pastor, was ordained December 16th, 1829. The council consisted of the Rev. Messrs. Joel Hawes, D. D., of Hartford, Noah Porter, D. D. of Farmington, David L. Ogden, of Southington, Luther Hart, of Plymouth, Jonathan Cone, of Bristol, Jason Atwater, of Waterbury, Darius O. Griswold, of Watertown, Erastus Scranton, of Burlington, and their delegates. Rev. Joel Hawes, D. D. preached on the occasion. Mr. Leavenworth was dismissed by mutual consent September 19, 1831. He has left no record of his ministry with us ; but we find that during his ministry here, that twenty-three were admitted upon their profession and ten by letters from other churches. We find but five that were dismissed and recommended to other churches, but it is known that others were thus dismissed and recommended. He was installed at Charlotte, N. C., in the fall of 1832, and was dismissed on a call to the High Street Presbyterian Church, in Petersburg, Virginia, and was there reinstalled November, 1839. Mr. Leavenworth was born in Waterbury, July 2d, 1803. Graduated at Amherst College, Mass. 1825, and at Andover Theological Seminary, Mass., 1828. Married to Miss Elizabeth Manning Peabody, of Salem, Mass., June 14th, 1831. She died a few years since, and Mr. Leavenworth has married again, as we understand.

REV. DAVID LEWIS PARMELEE, the fifth Pastor, was ordained February 29th, 1832. The council consisted of the Rev. Messrs. Joseph E. Camp, of Northfield, Erastus Scranton, of Burlington, Noah Porter, of Farmington, Luther Hart, of Plymouth, David L. Ogden, of Southington, Laurens P. Hickok, of Litchfield, their delegates, and Dea. George Stanley from the church in Goshen. Rev. Laurens P. Hickok preached the sermon. He was dismissed by mutual consent on the 2d day of February, 1841, to take effect with the close of that month. Mr. Parmelee has placed upon the records of this church a full history of his ministry among us. He says there had been four seasons of special religious interest in this church and out of it. He further says, "The first had just commenced as I began my labors in this place, the joyful intelligence that the evidence was clear that God was present by the special influence of his Holy Spirit hastened my course hither;" that 157 members were added by profession, and 126 by letters, making the additions 283; that 103 were dismissed and recommended to other churches; 4 excommunicated, and 55 died leaving on the first day of March, 1841—399. Mr. Parmelee includes, among the admissions during his ministry, 24 who were admitted by profession January 8th, 1832, and 1 by letter the same day, for the reason that they were admitted after he had been called to become our minister. He was reinstalled at South Farms, August 25th, 1841, where he remains. Mr. Parmelee was born at Litchfield, on the 11th of November, 1795. He is not a graduate of any College; he studied the higher departments of his literature and the classics with the Rev. Truman Marsh of Litchfield, and Louis Mitchell, Esq., and two other law students at Litchfield, who took an interest in the education of Mr. Parmelee. His theological course was with the Rev. Joseph Harvey, D.D., then of West Chester. Mr. Parmelee and Miss Sally Stanley, (daughter of William Stanley, Esq.) of Goshen, were married August 28th, 1817.

REV. RAYMOND HOYT SEELEY, the sixth Pastor, was ordained July 5th, 1843. The council consisted of the Rev. Horace Bushnell, D. D., Hartford, Noah Porter, D. D., Farmington, Elisha C. Jones, Southington, Aaron C. Beach, Wolcott, Merrill Richardson, Terryville, and Harvey D. Ketchell, Plymouth Hollow; with their delegates, and Deacons Sherman Smith, Burlington, Roderick Stanley, Plainville, and Brother Barnabas W. Root, Plymouth. Rev. Horace Bushnell, D. D., preached the sermon. Mr. Seeley was dismissed by mutual consent, on the 24th day of January, 1849, on a call from a church in Springfield, Mass., where he was reinstalled March 1st, 1849, where he remains. Mr. Seeley has left upon our records a very kind, tender and affectionate expression of his thanks for the many expressions of kindness and affection received at our hands, with his earnest prayers for the temporal and eternal happiness of ourselves and families. We find upon his record that thirty-two were added to the Church by profession, and fifty-nine by letters during his ministry, and that 45 were dismissed and recommended to other churches. Mr. Seeley was born at Norwalk February 19th, 1812; he graduated at New York City University in July, 1839, and at the Theological Seminary in New York, in 1842. Mr. Seeley and Miss Catharine L. daughter of Hon. Timothy Cowles of Farmington, were united in marriage October 9th, 1843.

REV. WILLIAM HENRY GOODRICH, the seventh Pastor, was ordained March 13th, 1850; ordaining council, Rev. Messrs. Noah Porter, D. D., Farmington, Elisha C. Jones, Southington, William Wright, Plainville, James L. Wright, Burlington, Merrill Richardson, Terryville, Aaron C. Beach, Wolcott, William W. Woodworth, Berlin, and their delegates. Rev. Chauncey A. Goodrich, D. D., New Haven, Rev. Jarius C. Searle, Unionville, and Dea. Charles G. Ives, delegate of this Church. The Rev. Ephraim Lyman, Joseph D. Hull, Chauncey Goodrich, and Erastus Scranton, being present were invited to sit with the council. Rev. Chauncey A. Goodrich, D. D. preached the discourse. Mr. Goodrich remains with us, and since his settlement there has been added to the church by profession fifty-six; and by letters thirty-four; and during the same time, twenty-six have been dismissed and recommended to other churches.

Mr. Goodrich was born at New Haven, January 19th, 1823; is a graduate of Yale College, class 1843, and of the Theological department in 1847. Mr. Goodrich and Miss Mary Prichard, formerly of Boston, were united in marriage at New Haven, April 23d, 1850.

D E A C O N S :

The following persons have been Deacons in this church, to wit—Hezekiah Rew, and David Gaylord were the first Deacons, and were both chosen November 8th, 1747. Deacon Gaylord died April 23d, 1776, aged — years; we cannot find when Deacon Rew died. His wife, Abigail, died Nov. 21st, 1764. His residence was near the house of Mr. Lott Newell. Stephen Barnes was chosen to fill his place, and died March 21st, 1757, in the 43d year of his age, and was buried in the south yard.

Elnathan Ives was chosen October 13th, 1757, to supply the place of Deacon Barnes, deceased, and resigned his office October 15th, 1764, and died February 16th, 1777, in the 71st year of his age and was buried in the south yard.

Elisha Manross was chosen April 23d, 1765, to supply the place of Deacon Ives, resigned. He served until his death, which occurred on the 18th day of January, 1810, aged 83 years, and was buried in the south yard.

Stephen Hotchkiss was appointed in 1774, with reference to supply the place of Deacon Gaylord; and served until about the year 1780, when he moved to Burlington, where he died in 1807, in the 89th year of his age.

Zebulon Peck, Jr., was chosen to fill Dea. Hotchkiss place, and served until his removal to Paris, Oneida County, N. Y., in June 1801. He died at Marshall, in said County, January 23d, 1820, aged 77 years.

Josiah Wolcott was chosen September 30th, 1800, and officiated until he moved to Farmington, Ohio, in 1808, where he died January 13th, 1838, aged 83 years.

Bryan Hooker was chosen July 31st, 1801, and served as such until his death, July 22d, 1826, aged 62 years, and was buried in the north yard.

Ira Hooker was appointed September 16th, 1808, and officiated until his death. He died November 30th, 1837, aged 78 years. He lies buried on the Great Plains.

Charles G. Ives was appointed to the same office February 2d, 1809, and now holds and does the duties of the office.

Reuben Hough was appointed October 6th, 1826, and did the duties of the office until 1828, when he moved to Brooklyn, N. Y., and thence to Whitesborough, Oneida County, N. Y., where he died July 9th, 1850, aged 63 years.

Elisha C. Brewster and Welles R. Byington were chosen April 30th, 1830; they both accepted and served. Deacon Byington until his death, July 4th, 1849, aged 60 years; he was buried in the north yard. Deacon Brewster now holds the office and does its duties.

The foregoing persons are all who have held the office of Deacon in the Church, but several others have been chosen but declined to accept.

ARTICLES OF FAITH.

ART. I. You believe that there is one only living and true God, who is a Spirit, infinite in natural attributes and moral perfections, that the mode of his existence is such, as lays a foundation for the three-fold distinction of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, who possess the same nature and are equal in every divine attribute and perfection: that he made, preserves, and governs all things for his own glory, and that in whatsoever comes to pass, he accomplishes the eternal counsel of his own will in such a way that man is a free and accountable agent.

ART. VI. You believe that although the saints are justified by faith and saved by grace yet the law as a rule of life remains in full force, so that perfect holiness of heart and life is duty, and that the gospel of free grace does not countenance or encourage in any case to live in the least degree of sin.

Matthew v. 17, 18, 48, John xiv. 15. Romans iii. 31. vi. 1—23. 2 Corinthians v. 14, 15.

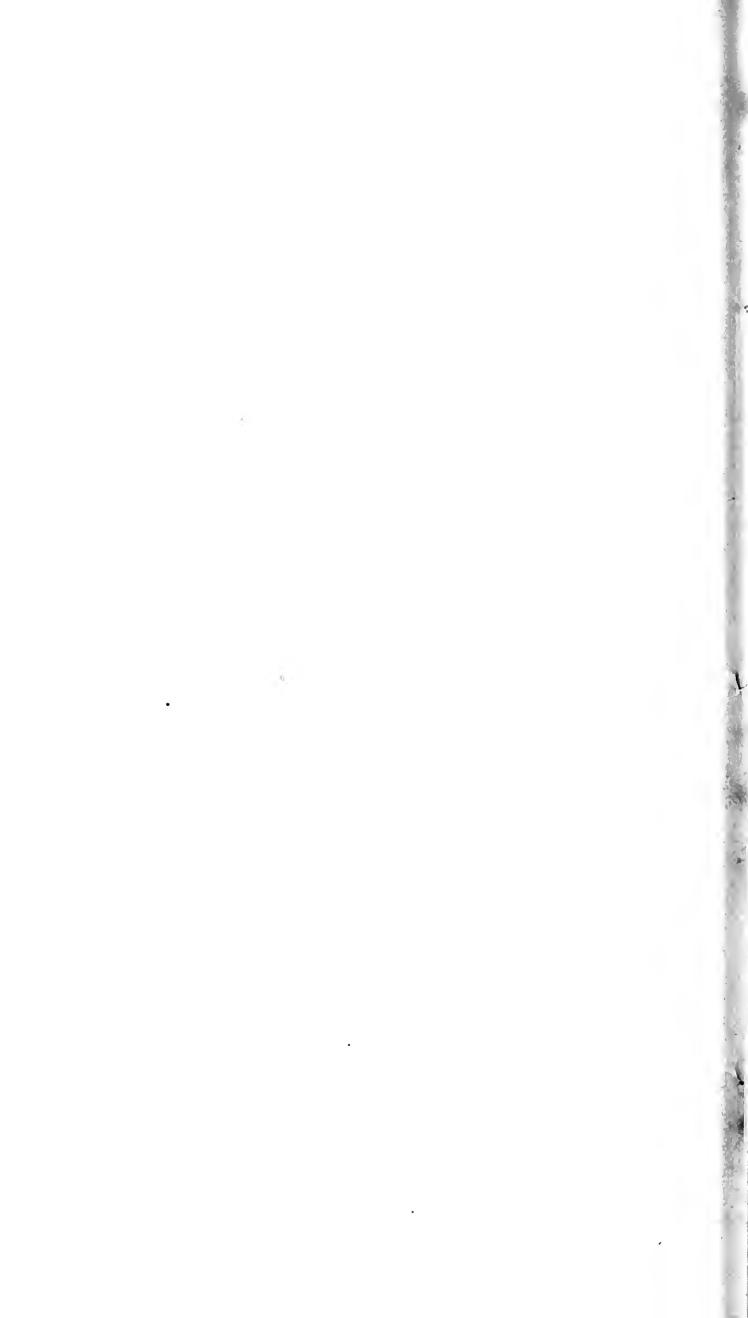

ART. VII. You believe that Jesus Christ has a church on earth, that in its visible form it comprehends all those who credibly profess the faith of the gospel, that its sacraments are Baptism and the Lord's supper, and that Baptism is to be administered not only to believers (when not baptized in infancy) but also to the children of their households.

Galatians iii. 27—29. v. 1, 2. Genesis vii. 10. 1 Peter iii. 21. Luke xviii. 15, 16. Acts xvi. 15, 33. 1 Corinthians i. 16. vii. 14. Philippians iii. 3. Matthew xxvi. 26—28. Mark xiv. 22—24. Luke xxii. 19, 20. 1 Cor. xi. 23, 26.

ART. VIII. You believe that at the end of time, the Lord Jesus Christ will descend from heaven to raise the dead and judge the world, that then there will be no further state of probation, that the righteous will be received into life eternal, and the wicked will go away into everlasting punishment.

Psalms xcvi. 13. Ecclesiastes ix. 10. xii. 14. Matthew xii. 36. xiii. 40, 42, 49. xvi. 27. xxv. 31—46. John v. 22—29. Acts x. 42. xvii. 31. Romans xiv. 10. Jude 14, 15. Revelation xx. 12, 13. 2 Peter iii. 7—13. Matthew xxv. 10—12. 1 Thessalonians iv. 16. 1 Corinthians xv. 52. Psalm ix. 17.

Do you consent to these as articles of your belief?

C O V E N A N T.

You do now in the presence of the everliving God and this assembly, avouch the Lord Jehovah to be your God ; Jesus Christ to be your prophet, priest and king, and the Holy Ghost to be your sanctifier, comforter and guide.

You do deliberately, and forever, dedicate yourselves and all you have to God in Christ Jesus, humbly confessing and repenting of your sins, professing to have accepted of salvation as coming exclusively through Jesus Christ and as bestowed on you through the rich and sovereign grace of God.

You do solemnly promise, in dependence on divine grace, that you will make the word of God the rule of your faith and practice, that you will carefully observe his ordinances and institutions, that you will walk worthy the Christian vocation, evincing a life of piety towards God and of benevolence towards your fellow men.

You do also cordially join yourselves to this church of Christ, especially dedicating yourselves to the service of Christ in it, engaging while you continue a member of it, that you will walk with it in charity and Christian affection, that you will seek its purity, peace and edification, and that you will faithfully employ, and meekly receive the admonition and discipline which Christ has ordained.

With an affecting belief that your vows are recorded on high, and will be reviewed in the day of final judgment, to this Covenant you give your cordial consent.

We, then, as a Church, do cordially receive you into our fellowship and communion, and give thanks to God, who we trust has inclined your hearts to fear his name; we promise to treat you with Christian affection, to watch over you with tenderness, and to offer our prayers to the great head of the church to enable you to fulfil the Covenant which you have now made.

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you, the Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace.

Now unto Him, who is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God, our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. AMEN.

C O V E N A N T

TO BE USED IN THE BAPTISM OF CHILDREN.

You, who have now appeared in the Sanctuary with the child [or the children] which God has given you, believing that his Covenant is not only with his people, but with their seed after them, and feeling it to be a privilege thus publicly to dedicate your offspring to his service, and have applied to them the seal of that Covenant, do now sacredly devote this child, [or these children,] to be His forever, and, in humble reliance on His grace, do solemnly engage to train it [or them] up in his fear, to instruct it [or them] faithfully in His Word, to set before it [or them] a pure and Christian example, and by all means in your power to prepare it [or them] for admission into His visible Church on earth, and for a place at His right hand forevermore.

Thus in dependence on the all sufficient grace of Christ to make you faithful, you now promise.

[Here follows the administration of the ordinance as usual, after which the Church will rise at the following words.]

We, then, your brethren of this Church, do covenant affectionately with you, to regard this child, [or these children,] as embraced within our watch, and to aid you in this great work by our sympathy, our example, and our prayers. And may the Great Head of the Church bless and keep you and your house, and at length gather you and them into the mansions of His Eternal Rest.

STANDING RULES OF THE CHURCH.

RULE I. That any person, wishing to join our communion ; be first propounded before the Church and Congregation, at least one Sabbath previous to the Sabbath of admission.

RULE II. That a letter of recommendation from any other church in favor of any individual wishing to connect with this church, shall be publicly read before the church, and if no objection shall be made within one week after it is thus read, the pastor or officiating minister is authorized to declare that individual a member of this church.

RULE III. That any member of this church wishing to remove his or her relationship from this church to some other church, shall be publicly announced to the church, and if no objection shall be made within one week, the pastor, or in case there shall be no pastor, the clerk of the church is authorized to grant the letter.

RULE IV. That when any member of this Church, removing from this place, shall suffer the space of two years to pass without either taking a letter of dismission, or in any way communicating with the Church, this shall be considered a neglect of covenant obligation, and no letter shall afterwards be granted without due satisfaction made to the church.

RULE V. Members of sister and other churches in regular standing, residing among us, shall not be considered as being included in the customary invitation to communion in the Lord's supper for a longer term than one year, except by a vote of the church on their application.

RULE VI. There shall be appointed at the annual meeting of the church, a committee not exceeding seven, whose duty it shall be to assist the pastor in the examination of candidates for admission to the church, to conduct when necessary any investigation before the church, or to obtain the assistance requisite to conduct such investigation; but the existence of this committee shall not be understood to release any member of the church from taking the first, second or third steps in the case of offences within his knowledge.

RULE VII. The offences which especially require the exercise of christian discipline are such personal injuries as interrupt a free and pleasant communion; all vices and immoralities which bring reproach upon the christian name; all departure from the essential doctrines of the gospel; and all willful neglect of the essential duties of christianity.

RULE VIII. We take the directions of our Saviour in Matthew xviii. 15—17 inclusive as our rule in all cases of offence.

RULE IX. When it becomes necessary to tell a fault to the Church, the complaint brought in due form, with the names of the witnesses must first be presented to the Pastor, or if there be no Pastor, to the Senior Officer of the Church, who, as soon as may be, shall call a meeting of the Church for an examination of the case, and shall cause the accused to be cited, and the witnesses to be summonsd to be present, giving them reasonable notice beforehand.

RULE X. No member shall be convicted but by the testimony of two or three witnesses or that which is equivalent. And we deem the evidence as coming within that which the spirit of the gospel requires which will prove by different individuals, the same offence, neglect of duty or heresy in kind on different occasions, although as to each particular but one can testify, and therefore recognize such offences, neglect of duty and heresies as disciplinable.

RULE XI. On the conviction of a member when the offence is peculiarly scandalous and notorious, it may be necessary to proceed to excommunication immediately, but in other cases conviction should be followed by admonition on the part of the church previous to the final sentence.

RULE XII. Confessions before the church should be made, only at public meetings, and whenever the sentence of excommunication is pronounced, it should be done publicly.

RULE XIII. We consider ourselves bound to discountenance reports which are injurious to the Christian character of any member, and the circulation of such reports we consider a disciplinable offence; but whenever we have serious cause to apprehend that any one has been overtaken in a fault, it is our duty to go to him directly and tell it to him alone; if one the examination, there appears to be no sufficient ground for the complaint, we are to do what we can to stop injurious reports respecting it; and in all cases to endeavor, as far as possible, by private and reasonable admonitions, counsels and prayers to settle differences, and remove offences without a public exposure of them.

RULE XIV. No member may refuse to attend with the church on any ordinance of the gospel on account of any offence committed by another member.

RULE XV. That if any member of this church shall offend or trespass against another in a manner which can in the opinion of the aggrieved member be proved according to the word of God, and when the steps which the gospel requires cannot be taken by the aggrieved member before the then next administration of the Lord's supper, he may request the offending member to absent himself for that occasion only from this ordinance.

RULE XVI. We are under the same obligations to members of other churches of our communion who reside among us, as to members of this church in respect to private admonition in cases of offences, and when any one of them is not gained by private admonition it is our duty to inform the church to which he belongs.

RULE XVII. We acknowledge ourselves to sustain a tender and responsible relation to the children of the members of the church as recognized in their baptism; and we consider it our duty to afford each other all the aid in our power in training them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord ; to cultivate an acquaintance with them, to remind them of their special obligations ; to do whatever we can to persuade them to comply with their obligations ; and also freely to give each other and thankfully to receive whatever notices or admonitions may be needful, in order to a discreet and faithful performance of parental duties.

RULE XVIII. The ordinance of the Lord's Supper shall be administered at least six times a year ; the first Sabbaths of every other month commencing with January, shall be (providence permitting,) the stated periods.

RULE XIX. The foregoing rules shall be read before the church and congregation annually on the first Sabbath on which the communion shall be administered after the annual meeting of the church.

Resolved, In the case of non-resident members of this church, who shall any time have been ten years absent without regular dismissal, and without communicating with the church, or (2) who have united themselves to churches with whom we hold no communion, or (3) who are reported to be of unchristian walk or opinions, and from whom, after due endeavor to correspond with them, no answer is obtained, that the watch of the Church be withdrawn from them, and that in token thereof the words, watch withdrawn, be affixed to their names in the record of church members.

DEATHS AND POPULATION IN BRISTOL.

After a careful examination of, and computation from, my record, and other documents in my possession, I find that there were during the fifty years commencing on the 1st day of January, 1801, and ending the 31st of December, 1850, fourteen hundred and fifty-nine deaths in the town of Bristol; that the average age of these persons is twenty-eight years, four months and nearly twenty days; that two hundred ninety-nine of them died under the age of one year; that but five lived to the age of ninety years, viz: Mr. James Cole, who died September 16th, 1803, aged ninety-six; Mr. David Moore, (colored,) who died January 2d, 1823, aged ninety-five; Widow Anne Nichols, who died December 31st, 1818, aged ninety-three; Widow Ruth Gridley, who died in August, 1811, aged ninety-one; and Widow Rachel Gaylord, who died October 31st, 1828, aged ninety-one.

The average age of those persons who died during the first twenty-five years of the time, is twenty-eight years, eleven months, and a fraction over twelve days; and of those who died during the last twenty-five years, is, twenty-seven years, eleven months and nearly twenty-four days ;—

 and that. the population of Bristol in 1800 was 1362 : in 1810, 1428 : in 1820, 1362 : in 1830,
 1707 : in 1840, 2109 : and in 1850, 2884.

TRACY PECK.

Bristol, April 1st, 1852.

“O, life ! it is tearful,
 We're all of us sighing,—
 The moment we are cheerful,
 That moment we're dying,—
 And all we have tasted,
 And all we have spoken,
 Are hopes—that are wasted,
 And hearts—that are broken.”
